Hello! I'm Blair

I'm a freelance creative based in Santa Soana. I'm a professional writer, and I've been passionate about creating beautiful and impactful work for over 15 years. I've worked with small businesses and enterprises on projects of varying scale and complexity.

When I'm not working, I'm baking, making jokes, and going on picnic dates with my dog Charlie. I believe that having a life outside of work is critical to staying inspired and energized.

what i do

Creative Writing

I write speeches for professionals and scripts for products and campaigns. I also do creative strategy and direction for brands.

Editing and Proofreading

I edit a variety of creative media, such as books, articles, and videos, to ensure a clear and professional presentation.

Consulting

I work with small business and startup owners to create their brand identities and presence.

what they say about me

I contacted Blair to help with my brand identity as a freelancer. She helped me find my voice and establish my presence in the creative world. Being a freelancer, Blair taught me many things beyond my voice and image. She's the best!

Kiana Austin

Blair made it possible for our small startup company of three to build a pitch deck that we've been using for five years! Thank you, Blair, for understanding our needs, presenting them graciously, and helping us secure our third batch of investors.

Arivaci & Co

Despite the short notice, Blair was instrumental in helping us launch our website's help center. She wrote all our articles that have been helping our community use our technology the best way possible. You're amazing, Blair!
